AIA New Zealand shall mean AIA International Limited, trading as AIA New Zealand, and / or any related companies and / or agents (including company officers acting in the scope of their authority) and AIA New Zealand's insurance advisers or reinsurers.

You are not insured:

- until this application has been accepted by AIA New Zealand; and
- you have paid the first month's premium.

AIA New Zealand may decline this application, or may accept this application subject to certain conditions and exclusions.

Your duty of disclosure:

When you apply for insurance with AIA New Zealand and when you make a claim on the policy, you have a legal duty of disclosure to AIA New Zealand.

The duty of disclosure means that:

1. All the statements that you or any Life Assured make to AIA New Zealand (both written and oral), including the answers in this application, any claim made by you, and any other communication by you or any Life Assured with AIA New Zealand, must be true and correct.
2. You and any Life Assured must disclose everything that you or any Life Assured know, or could reasonably be expected to know that is relevant to AIA New Zealand's decision whether:
  - to accept your application for insurance, on what terms AIA New Zealand will accept it and how much it will cost; or
  - to accept your claim on the policy.
3. This duty of disclosure in relation to your application for insurance continues from the time you complete this application until either:
  - the later of the commencement date of the policy or the date AIA New Zealand accepts your application for insurance; or
  - AIA New Zealand declines your application for insurance.
4. You and any Life Assured also have the same duty of disclosure to AIA New Zealand throughout the term of the policy whenever you or any Life Assured communicate with AIA New Zealand and whenever you extend, vary or reinstate your insurance.

Replacement Policy Advice for Policy Owners

Policy Owner to Read and Complete (Please read before you sign the Acknowledgement and Declaration below)

Making an Informed Decision

The Financial Advisers Act requires Advisers to exercise care, diligence and skill when providing clients with financial advice. That advice should include an accurate explanation of the differences between your existing and proposed policy / benefit, the advantages and disadvantages of any benefit replacement, and the reasons why replacement is your best option. This comparison should consider key aspects of your policy / benefit, such as:

Your Personal Situation – Changes in your health, leisure activities or occupation may mean your new policy contains restrictions or exclusions that your old policy doesn't have. Similarly, any improvements in your health or lifestyle may mean improved terms and conditions.

Benefit Definitions – There can be subtle differences in the definitions used between policies including medical conditions, employment, occupational and disablement etc. Take care to understand what your existing policy / benefit covers and what you will be covered for under the new policy / benefit.

Cost – If there have been changes to your personal situation since the original policy / benefit was taken out, the new policy / benefit may cost more to get the same or similar benefits. Alternatively, if your personal situation has improved or remained the same, the premiums for the new policy / benefit may be lower.

Important Information

In a new policy the Suicide Exclusion Clause may recommence or the waiting period for trauma condition benefits may recommence.

AIA New Zealand will not be on risk until the original insurance cover being replaced by this policy is cancelled.

When replacing one policy with another, it is imperative that the new insurer be provided with the opportunity to assess your application accurately. For that reason it is vital that you provide full and accurate information regarding your health, occupation and pastimes. Provided the above has been done, the new insurer will issue the new policy to the same levels of cover without the stand-down period or suicide exclusion, which would normally apply.

I am / We are also aware I / we may withdraw this application in writing within the 14 day "free look" period from the date the new policy is received. In this event, AIA New Zealand will refund any premium, deposit or other payment made in respect of the proposed replacement policy and the proposed replacement policy will be cancelled.
